Dear Sir or Madam:

It has come to my attention that the Postmaster General, Louis DeJoy is proposing yet another number of changes in the function of the United States Postal Service, which, like all of his previous orders, are clearly designed to undermine, damage and obstruct the purpose and function of the postal service. May I call to your attention the fact that the establishment of postal service is mandated in the Constitution. Nothing in that document suggests that postal service is to be run as a business or return a profit. The mandate is to provide postal service.

Following his previous intentional and malicious degrading of postal function, including the deliberate vandalizing of valuable public equipment, the retention of Mr. DeJoy in his office at all is a frankly baffling affront to the American people. He needs to be dismissed at the earliest possible moment. And in the meantime, absolutely no further orders he cares to issue should be carried out by anyone.

Respectfully yours,

Elaine Fazzaro
